Keep working on your Flask skills by building out more and more apps. The more practice you get through actually building projects, the better you will understand all the ins and outs of this web framework.

If the tutorials get boring, step it up a notch and build out another website idea you've been thinking about, or up the game by improving your capstone project further. You got what it takes, and the rest will come along the way. All the best, keep up the good work, and share your ideas and progress on Discord!

Check out the following page if you feel your Flask skills are solid and it's time for you to take the next step. You will see a few suggestions on what you could go on to learn next.
